Thread: Who else is excited for Arcane season 2?!

I'm so pumped! I absolutely loved season 1. The character development, the chemistry behind them, the pacing, the cinematography; ALL of it was perfect.

If season 2 is anything like season 1 was, we can expect to see an amazing finale here.

Here's the trailer for season 2:

I've heard a lot about it but didn't watch yet, I know that even people who are not into LoL watched it and they appreciated. I'm thinking about giving a try to the first season

Didn't like Arcane season 1 cause they shat all over LoL lore just for that garbage.

IMO Arcane was carried mainly by Fortiche Studios and basically everything except the story itself, haven't read about Season 2 or watched any of its trailers.

Yeah I really enjoyed the first season.

Here's the trailer for season 2:

I watched the first two episodes. Goated everything except for writing which is slacking.

Act 2 is on today. But I'm yet to watch episode 3. I hope to catch upto Act 2 this week.

Hopefully the ending will be amazing and satisfying in some way.

Anyone else is watching this show?

I'm about to begin watching Act 2.

I finished watching Act 2. Incredible cliff hanger ending.

I can't believe the show is about to end in a few days. Feels like 3 episodes is not near enough to wrap up the story. Hope they don't fudge it.
