Thread: Have you watched Supernatural?

Syndicate - October 23, 2024, 11:30 pm

I'm in the middle of rewatching it now, I just started over a few days ago. I've watched it maybe 5 or 6 times so this time I'm skipping through the un-important episodes and focusing on the story. It should be going much faster.

I'm using this as a viewing guide and watching the "WATCHABLE/SUGGESTED WATCH" episodes ?

I've seen it all the way through 3 times I think. I've been to 2 of the conventions, met the entire cast both times. I bought a replica of the first blade, the one dean uses with the mark of Cain, and had the entire cast autograph it.

Haha 1 episode remaining, I finally (almost) finished the series

I've always wondered if this series was popular or not, but I guess that with 15 seasons the answer is yes

Started watching it a few years ago but got away from it at some point.
Might jump back in at some point.

Yes, I quite liked the show growing up.

I watched up until the second to last season and was waiting for the entirety of the final season to come out and then I forgot and now I need to re-watch the entire show just to see the last season.

I started to watch it a few years ago but never finished. Thanks for reminding me? I'll re add it to my list.
