For me, it would likely be Ryan Reynolds, due to his role as Deadpool, and even older role as Van Wilder.

If you haven't watched Van Wilder, be sure to watch the franchise.

Arnold Schwarzenegger.

He was great in action movies like Terminator.

I loved him in Kindergarten Cop. Those old classics, aha.

Sean Connery (RIP), best James Bond ever and well, there's tons of other good titles that he was the main character in of course...but he's one of my favorites (kinda like Jim Carrey).

Good choice.

I always picture Pierce Brosnan in my mind when I think of James Bond.

Sean Connery was top-tier as bond though.

Clint Eastwood certainly for me, with "Gran Torino" and "Million Dollar Baby" I think he made two masterpieces.
