Alright, let's be real—some shows and movies just don't live up to the hype. ? I'll start: Stranger Things was entertaining, but I honestly feel like it's overhyped. Now, I know some of you are probably fans, so no hard feelings! ? What's a popular show or movie that everyone seems to love, but you just don't get the fuss about? Let's hear your hottest takes!

For my part I liked Stranger Things, mostly because I like the 70/80's I guess haha

For me it was La Casa del Papel, I tried but didn't find it really interesting

Rick and Morty.

It's hippie funny but actually pretty stupid. I enjoy watching it to rot my brain for some cheap laughs but it's quite silly really.

The prime example is the pickle rick scene.
