I'll allow any liquid as an answer including alcohol.

Personally, I love a good can of Red Bull. It goes well with Honey Jack Daniel's too.

What is yours?

I would have said this previously, but that shit is hella watered down these days.

Coke from a can is better in my opinion. Pour it from the can, into a glass with some ice and a lemon wedge. Perfection and refreshing as hell.

Not a bad choice, I do like a sprite with JD every now and then too.
