Thread: What's your favorite Christopher Nolan movie?

I think we can all agree that Nolan is one of the top-notch directors in Hollywood and has been for quite some time now.

Personally, my overall favorite will always be The Dark Knight, I just love that movie so much and think it was so well made.

Besides TDK, I'd have to say Inception is very high on that list as well. Top tier movie, 10/10. Tenet, not so much lol.

What about you guys?

My personal favorite is Interstellar.

Followed by Inception and Batman: Dark Knight.

For me The Prestige aswell. Inception is great, tenet is doodoo. Dark Knight is a classic. Dunkirk was great in the cinema, but I wouldn't rewatch I'm not that in to war movies. Memento I couldn't get in to. A really fun director.

I only watched the beginning, but I heard that "Odyssey" is great. I'll watch all the parts of "Batman" by Nolan.
