im am trying to meet someone who is looking to build a friendship (no homo) and find some ways to use each others skills/knowledge to make some money and learn so new skills. I have been spending the last two years reading and filling out notebooks of all types of useful and important cyber security information. not trying to waste my time or anyone else's but if you have some real skills and want to make some money with someone else let me know because I have a lot of time that I can spent online making some money and I feel like two minds can be better then one. (most of the time). there's a lot of ways out there for everyone to make some extra money
