Frequently Asked Questions

Are the reviews from real people or bots?

Every review is posted manually therefore I guarantee both delivery and non-drop.

What countries are available?

I offer worldwide service, you can pick and select any country you prefer. There is no extra cost when switching countries.

Can you write reviews?

Yes, at the additional cost I can write reviews myself. Bear in mind I can only provide English reviews.

What language are the reviews in?

The reviews can be posted in any language of your choice at no additional cost, as long as you provide reviews. I will not be held responsible if you have made a typing error or such.

Is it possible that the reviews will be deleted?

Absolutely not, the method I use to post reviews is my private finding that has been used for 4+ years with no issues even after 10k reviews posted. If for whatever reason a small percentage ends up removed, I will gladly replace them at no extra cost.

Are bulk order prices available?

Yes of course, I can adjust the pricing based on your request. Please contact me for a quote.

What is the maximum amount of reviews per day?

At the current rate (and that highly depends on whether I have large orders, or not), my maximum is 40 reviews per day.

Can I order 200 reviews or more?

Absolutely, we will work closely to match your needs. I can drip-feed them, do custom per day/week. Please contact me for more informations.

Refund Policy If I fail to provide you the service in the time agreed, you are eligible for a full refund.

Great work! Hired him to post a few reviews on trustpilot, he was open and honest throughout, following a drip feed to my specifications.

All reviews came through, not 1 ban.

Absolutely will hire again, pricing is very fair.

Are there any chances we can get blacklisted or blocked by trustpilot if we use your services? I'm looking to purchase some for a legitimate business and cannot afford to get them banned/blacklisted. This would basically ruin the whole business.
