I'm paying around 7 to 10 people to purchase a Fiverr gig I'll send and leave a five star rating plus a custom review I give.

I'll be paying the gig amount (what it would cost you) plus extra $3.

The only requirement for this is that you have a Fiverr account plus a payment method (debit/credit card)

If you're a fairly trusted member, I'll pay you first. If you're a new member and still want to do this, you should go first.

What're you offering on there?
