.... by gambling it away. This is exactly why gambling is a disgusting addiction and should be avoided if you can't do it responsibly

That's why i prefer going to the casino instead. Can go to a high roller table

Ouch sorry to hear that. Definitely try and set limits on yourself if you can, otherwise stay away. Easier said than done, I know.

Very very similar to roulette, always chasing the loses.

RangoWorld - November 21, 2024, 12:55 am

Remember kids you are gambling away from money.

Eventually you will breakeven or at worst lose everything you have.

The house always had the edge. It's all mathematics. You can't defeat math
