Thread: Anyone fall asleep watching the Jake Paul fight??

What a boring fight.... What were your thoughts?

I didn't fall asleep but I did stop paying attention. It was terrible from every aspect. From Netflix having hamster wheel servers to witnessing Tyson land 2 punches per round, and constantly watching Paul hold back and carry him.

I had very high hopes for Mike, before the match.

Once it started after round one, I knew it was just scripted and comedic at that point.

- biting fixation
- knee issues
- Jake running
- Mike not landing punches

I enjoyed what Mike said though post fight. The guys 58, and he will forever be Iron Mike.

Ir just goes to show, enjoy your youth

Sad to to see Tyson faking this for money, makes me wonder how many of his other fights were scripted as well.

Jake vs Joe Biden next

I watched it with a bunch of mates with drinks so wasn't so bad but imagine paying the high ticket prices to be there and see that...

Had a few "good" moments but overall disappointing fight. Was expected, but i didn't think that the holding back on both sides would be THIS obvious.

Lil Buddy - November 16, 2024, 9:55 am

I never watched it but judging from the reviews im glad i didnt lol

blackrose_x0x0 - November 16, 2024, 1:24 pm

It was a disappointment overall and probably shouldn't of even happened. Jake was holding back quite a bit, it was obvious. Still though, glad to have won some money from it.
