JNath - November 17, 2024, 10:57 am

Yes I have and it still exists, I made $200 when I ewhored few days ago when I had a snapchat account.

TWIXX - November 17, 2024, 11:27 am

Yes, those were the days lol

RangoWorld - November 17, 2024, 11:46 am

No. I remember the days when one of the hottest subforums in this forum was e-whoring. I never could being myself do it cause it felt very degrading or disgusting back then. We didn't had OnlyFans then either so the world was not as used to it as it is now.

Deany - November 17, 2024, 12:20 pm

I've never done it because it just felt wrong to my ego. Not really my thing to do, not only would I be scamming someone but I'd have to ERP with them? No thanks

Nope, that's lame. Of course it is wrong, you are basically scamming someone for money. What kind of question is that?

It's been a number of years, but yes, I have before. I found it disturbing with how they spoke and behaved, then having to put up with it. I don't understand why a majority of males are inclined to believe that every female wants to see their genitalia as if their life depended on it.
