Thread: Cyber Monday

I have a list of stuff I'm going to be buying during these Cyber Monday discounts. A lot of it is mostly Christmas shopping but i think im going to treat myself to something nice. Fishing stuff or maybe things i want around the house. Haven't made up my mind. Do any of you have a list of things you are going to buy, if you haven't already? My wife will buy her stuff which i know she has a list that's about 15 pages long front and back lol.

Stores near me dont even open at midnight any more. They treat BF like its a normal day with minimal discounts. I get better deals on CM
