Thread: December 1st - beginning of the Christmase setup

Chrome - December 1, 2024, 2:31 am

Hey guys,

Hopefully everyone has had a great start to the month for Christmas!

Today I got home from work and began setting up our lounge room with the Christmas decorations I purchased yesterday. We have only setup a fraction of what I bought and haven't even unboxed the current decorations. Every day we will add a little bit more and I will update as we go.

Feel free to give feedback.

Let's see your christmas setups!

Looks clean! I can't wait to start mine, however as I moved this year, my Xmas tree is not in my current apartment and I have to go get it. Should be done next week tho.

Yanix - December 1, 2024, 3:21 am

Are you planning to set up your Christmas tree soon?

For us, we might try to find a day this week, but we've been so busy lately. Family matters have been taking up most of our time.

Looks great. I need to start setting up soon but usually my wife does all that. Whenever i do decorations she always changes them so i let her handle all that
