Thread: Modern TV and Films suck

SOMEBORED21 - December 4, 2024, 3:46 am

Most modern media (2010s onwards) is stale, boring and filled with PC and tokenism.

example; Marvel films
All Netflix original films and TV.

Men are always portrayed as idiots and losers while women are bosses and strong. 1 woman kills 5 highly trained agents with her hands and legs.

There's no hope left apart from a few real passionate people.
Hollywood is the worst of the worst. Propaganda machine that rots our brains and targets children.
IK this is a rant but what else is there to do.

For the most part I do agree which is why I read books mainly instead of watching shows or movies. The Marvel movies are indeed incredibly overrated. They put me right to sleep. There's still great movies being made but ya the big Hollywood stuff is pretty bad.

Add video games to that list as well. The PC mind virus has destroyed the gaming industry.

I thought Fallout was a very good series tho.

This is, unfortunately, the new global trend, where the female must be portrayed as strong, capable of challenge and confrontation.
