I currently do not have anyone to nominate but thank you for this opportunity to upgrade one of our fellow members of HF!

Great thread, 7

Yanix - December 4, 2024, 8:45 pm

Another one great giveaway from your very own good leader @7@

I tag flyingduck to be the first one to have this Permanent UB3R. He is one of the kindest member I really love here on the forum. By the way flyingduck only have a yearly subscription of UB3R so I guess he can take one permanent UB3R as a gift.

Good luck to everyone who will be given permanent UB3R!

You can nominate yourself.

But explaining why you deserve it might be hard... but do it modestly ?

Tyr - December 4, 2024, 9:20 pm

Is there a way for us to easily categorize the member list by whether they are l33t or ub3r? I do not know many people who are l33t that actually deserve this and furthermore need to clarify whether in the help documents it states whether non-upgraded users can join a group or not.

I nominate myself for this upgrade.

I have been a member of Hackforums on and off since around 2009. In recent years, I've come to appreciate this serious and long-term community of professional individuals from around the world, many of whom are family-oriented. When I engage with users, especially long-standing members or those in notable groups, I always strive to be respectful. I have yet to meet an unserious member with a rank; everyone here is genuinely mature and deserving. Many users have shown me kindness and offered help, which motivates me to continue contributing and assisting both new users and anyone in need. I am committed to striving for a rank upgrade here.

Jamika - December 5, 2024, 2:29 am

Good help from u bro

I think Spam Assassin deserve one

Yani - December 5, 2024, 3:20 am

I'll nominate myself. I had permanent Ub3r for many many years and I'd love to get it back. Most other people I'd nominate already have permanent Ub3r anyways.

I had Omni remove almost 8k of my posts which in turn got me the lowest amount of bytes of anybody on the forum and made me lose my perm Ub3r because I did not have the post requirements anymore. I'm not super active anymore, and I mostly read stuff nowadays, but I still visit a few times each week and check around. Most of my old posts were in the PHP subforum (which is now merged into the webdev forum) where I was always trying to help out people. I think I also had 1k+ rep when asking for rep was not allowed and you could still write your own messages.

I'll keep my submission short for now as I don't want to flex about myself too much, but feel free to ask more.

Thanks for the chance, and good luck to all.

Thanks for doing this! I want to nominate the homie MDE.

Reasoning behind it is that he's been focused on providing a quality service on here since I spoke to him the first time.

He's also very patient with new people and seems to be focused on educating instead of just being here to make a quick buck.

Afaik he's only on a temp Ub3r, so him being on perma Ub3r makes sense to me!

Goodluck to all those that enter!

I have helped a few members around the forum with small favors. I plan on making more a lot more contributions in the future when i have more time like giving out free guides on various topics, tutorials, and maybe more ewhore packs.

I have gave away a free ewhore pack in the ewhoring section =
