Thread: When You Think Of "Christmas Movies", What Movie Comes To Mind First?

DemonAsylum - December 17, 2024, 1:58 pm

So I did this same thread concept for Christmas songs which you can see here - <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6286799>

I figured given Christmas movies are just as big of a thing, why not do a thread for them as well?

So as the title says, when it comes to the thought of Christmas movies, what one ore more come to your mind first? Doesn't matter if it's one you remember most from when you were a kid, one that came out whenever that you watch every year, or one that you just know is super popular so it always comes to mind.

I have a few that always come to mind, but for different reasons. A Christmas Story, Home Alone, Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, Elf, and A Charlie Brown Christmas. There are multiple other greats of course and that I could list, but those are normally the ones which some or all of come to mind first.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

Elf, Bad Santa, and Die Hard.

Charlie Brown was definitely one. Also, on cartoonnetwork, they had that one catchy song and movie "Grandma got run over by a reindeer"

Elf is my top pick. It is a classic that continues to be enjoyable year after year.

When I think of Christmas movies, I think of Dean Cain. Movies like "The Dog who Saved Christmas, and the Dog who Saved Christmas Vacation." ...
