I think early would be the best time to avoid any delays. Are you an early bird?

Sometimes, but I always find myself shopping at the 11th hour as well.

If I have money at the time , I would for sure order it earlier. This time bills coming and payments are a bit late so I'm just purchasing gifts now.

I don't buy gifts for the adults in my family, nor do I recieve gifts. I only give christmas gifts to the children in my family

I normally wait until the last minute lol. I tell myself every year I'm going to start early, and it never happens.
