Do you have any plans? Are they wild? Are they mild?

Miles Teller - December 18, 2024, 12:06 pm

Probably nothing TBH. Maybe watch the ball drop and then go to bed but otherwise no big plans

Deany - December 18, 2024, 12:06 pm

Same as every year, nothing at all lol. Idc for the ball drop either.

Charlie Sheen - December 18, 2024, 4:15 pm

Not much. Never been a holiday I went crazy over. Probably packing for this move.

Bashe - December 18, 2024, 4:29 pm

Definitely not going to the ball drop. Worst decision I've ever made two years ago. Had to hold in my piss for a couple of hours or piss in a bottle within a fenced off area full of probably a hundred people.

Chug whiskey and get an 8ball.

An old friend of mine from VRChat contacted me on Discord about the old group of ours to hang out that night for NYE so looking forward to that as long as the plans don't change.

I will probably stay home, watch some movies, and enjoy a cozy night with my family.
