Thread: Favorite COD Zombies of All Time?

What's your Favorite Zombies Mode in the Call of Duty titles?

Mine has to be Call of Duty: World at War.

I think Bo3 was super underrated, but World at War is too nostalgic to not be my favorite.

Black Ops 2.

I spent an insane amount of hours playing survival on town.

Kind of hard to beat the OG WaW. "Fetch me their souls!"

All the maps are solid, and the easter eggs are great.

I agree, just doing nebula drained me out of zombies completely lol.

For me, it's definitely Black Ops 1 Zombies like Kino der Toten and Ascension were my absolute favorites. The atmosphere, the mystery, and those clutch moments with friends just hit different. But yeah, I totally get the love for WaW, it really set the foundation.

Mine was also Call of Duty: World at War. Running around Shi No Numa with the wunderwaffe and ray gun was the best meta.
