Thread: Thing You Dread Most at Christmas Parties

Yanix - December 20, 2024, 3:02 am

Christmas parties are supposed to be fun and festive, but let's be honest—there's always that one thing that makes you cringe or wish you could skip out early. I'll start: the worst thing for me is when they make you perform in front of a crowd, especially dancing in front of all your coworkers! ? Seriously, it's like my personal nightmare every time.

What about you? Is it the awkward small talk, the never-ending speeches or maybe the overly competitive games?

If everyone start caroling together, it's just super annoying considering I'll have to join too.

I'd rather sing Christmas carols than dance. ?
