Thread: Still Christmas Shopping or Wrapped Up and Ready?

Yanix - December 20, 2024, 8:20 pm

Alright hackers, who's out there still running around trying to grab those last-minute gifts? ? Or are you one of the organized ones who finished shopping weeks ago?

I always tell myself I'll be done early... but somehow, here I am again, battling the crowds and hoping the stores still have what I need! ?

Where do you guys stand—early bird or last-minute sprinter?

Wrapped up & ready to rock n roll

I'm almost there! I have some last minute shopping to do tomorrow, wrap the remaining gifts and then will be good to go!

I have a couple of Christmas cards I need to write as well. This will be a busy weekend preparing for sure!

Everything's wrapped and ready for the big day! Might throw some more in the stockings ;)
