Thread: I reached my Xmas Ornament Award!

RangoWorld - December 21, 2024, 7:02 am

I'm so happy about it. I missed the October award because I was sick and I was bummed about it.

This time I was determined and I reached it earlier to my surprise. Still waiting for the award to show up on my profile.

But yay to me!

Yanix - December 21, 2024, 7:03 am

I'm not sure. How do I know? Cause award shows 100%

jcole - December 21, 2024, 7:52 am

Congrats! I'm at 82% and still have to make twelve threads.

Edit: You still need to create 25 threads in total.

If u go to award page and still nothing added , its probably because u didnt finish thread count , u can check them from ur profile

You'll need to create more threads to complete the award. You have reached the 250 post requirement, but you haven't completed the 25 threads.

Well then I'll make more threads in the coming days.

Yin Yang - December 21, 2024, 9:47 am

Nice job dude! I'll join you soon

Prawnster - December 21, 2024, 9:48 am

Nice mate! Yeah if it's not showing by now then it's 100% gonna be the thread count!

Easy enough to get up there plus it helps everyone if you post threads :)

Think I'm at around 60% on mine with all threads posted so not long to go now!

Weird that you're at 100% and it hasn't showed. Mine showed instantly.

Very nice, I'm looking to get 60 more posts.

RangoWorld - December 24, 2024, 4:16 am

I believe I have completed the requirements of making 25 threads and 250 posts for December 2024. Still haven't gotten the award on my profile yet.

Anybody has any clues?

Keep posting a few more posts and threads to add up. Happens to the halloween award too.
