Thread: Whats the most impressive Christmas light display you've ever seen?

I've seen in the past that some people decorate their houses so well that they actually receive small awards from some form of group (not sure which group judges garden displays haha).

Have you spotted any impressive light shows or anything this year?

I've noticed a real decline in all-out decorating this year, might be because it may have been a difficult year for some!

I've seen some impressive light shows around my time, but nothing that is too noteworthy around the neighboring houses, though.

I have seen a house with an incredible light show, covering everything from the roof to the yard. It looked magical.

Yeah this year seems to be rather un-decorated around my area other than a few select houses that have gone all out haha.

I always hoped I'd be that house when I was younger but nowadays, I'd rather focus on gettin stuff done before Christmas Day so never really committed to it.
