I know there are a lot of holdouts who have not watch Game of Thrones yet, but I have watched it all the way through almost twice now (we are on the last season). It's a spectacular series. Some of the battle scenes are so intense. They did such a great job with this show. The ending isn't what everyone wanted but after a lot of thought I think it was an alright ending. Watching it all over again, I've been picking up on small details I didn't notice the first time watching. The casting is incredible, which kind of ruins it a little for me because I'll forever have a difficult time watching these actors in other roles.

Have you seen Game of Thrones? if not why the hold out?

I watched it and it's one of my favorite shows of all time. It's so good. Season 8 is pretty meh and rushed but I don't think it's as bad as everyone makes it out to be. I don't think I'll ever watch another show that hit me the way GoT did.

Really wish I could get amnesia and watch this show for the first time again

I watched it as it came out so I have forgotten a lot of storylines in it. Each episode is like a high quality movie.

My first time watching I watched all 7 seasons in like a week right before season 8 came out so I could watch season 8 with friends. The red wedding ruined me ?

I might rewatch it since I havn't seen it in like 4 years now. I also tried watching House of the Dragon but just couldn't really get into it Same boat man on both statements. The Red Wedding is permanently scarred into my brain. I also couldn't get into House of the Dragon.

I liked the show, even though I can't say it's one of my favourites, the ending was really disappointing, the best impression we get on a movie or show is the start and ending

I have completed watching the whole season series and am now still waiting for House of the Dragon.

Didn't yet but it's on my list, heard it has a lot of +18 scenes

I finally watched it a couple of years ago and once I did, I couldn't stop going to the next episode, then the next episode, and so on and so forth. It really is a good show. Lots of drama.

The show is definitely worth watching but I don't know about doing it a second time. That's one of the good things about rewatching something, you always pick up stuff you never saw the first time.

The problem I have now is I've watched so many movies and series I've started to run out of things to watch. I like to binge watch stuff, I hate having to wait weekly for a new episode of a show.
