I normally swap thru Changelly, fees are low enough (around 0.25% I believe).

You just swap the BTC/LTC/Whatever for XMR and bam it's sorted.

Interesting, you got me into simpleswap now I am curious what made you make the switch just based on price or other concerns?

Better rates and better coin selection. One thing I like is you can DELETE the transactions once it's done but they do it automatically after 24 hours. So there seems to be some privacy.
