What type of reading/books do you do? Do you like fiction/fact/horror/drama/etc?

Traction is a good one it helped me get organized and prioritize the right things/reactions instead of getting caught up in the bad ones that sucked my time and energy up.

Prob can find it for free tbh on audio somewhere YouTube :-). That is the other thing is I now have an audible membership as sometimes it is easier for me to listen then to turn the page.

If you like horror as you mention then the Wayward Pines Trilogy is awesome, I couldn't put them down, started the first book on 17/11/2024, finished the last book on 30/11/2024, the series is by Blake Crouch.

Then there are...

Black Sheep by Rachel Harrison

All the Friends of hell by Adam L.G. Nevill

Violet Eyes by John Everson

I read those before Wayward pines and gave every book 5/5. Just started on the Night Warriors series by Graham Masterton, on book 2 already although they are nothing like the page turners I mentioned above, now if you are looking for something by Graham Masterton you cannot go wrong with Black Angel, then there is Scarlet Widow and the Coven two books in the Beatrice Scarlet series.

I just love horror can't help you with self improvement though, I don't really enjoy those, anyway hope you choose some suggestions from my list of reading this year...

The Wayward Pines Trilogy sounds interesting.

It's sure is they made a series out of it back in 2015 and there were only two seasons so it was good to read in between the lines, enjoy...
