Thread: I got 100% on Christmas Award goal but didn't received why?

Spam Assassin - December 29, 2024, 2:31 am

Is this some bug or we won't receive it? I saw the last awarded were from 27th Dec? Confusing?

I'm waiting for a response before I do the work unnecessarily. Maybe they will assign it after December 31st?

I think it was automatic! Or not?

figghiozzu - December 29, 2024, 2:35 am

It should be, but let's wait for official responses. Hopefully, the time hasn't run out.

Finally got the award. When I spent a bit of bytes my profile was updated and I got the award. Maybe it's cron issue. CRON runs around every 10 mins so update takes 10 Mins

Just like what happened to me, I know I am done but still not appearing on my account. I just keep on making threads and keep on posting, then suddenly got mine the day I am expecting it to appear on my account. ?

It was due to CRON issue. Being a Dev and then forgetting about cron, I regret making this thread. But then again, would be a helpful thread for others so I kept it open!

I am going to be abusive about the awards until I get them and the green pumpkin is very ugly although this one is admittedly more attractive it is stupid and I am stupid for trying to get the award.

But you already got it girl! you being a redhead shouldn't demoralise the pumpkin as it has the similar color aspects. It will feel bad at it's hard.

I meant the green pumpkin was the one I don't really like. This Christmas award is at least pretty. I think ironically my post abusing the awards was the one where I finally got it.
