Thread: Xmas Award

figghiozzu - December 30, 2024, 8:42 pm

Yesterday around 9 PM, I completed the Xmas Goal, but I still haven't received the badge. Is this normal? Is there any procedure I might have missed?

You might have missed a thread or something did you make sure on <https://hackforums.net/awardgoals.php> that it shows 100%

Deany - December 30, 2024, 8:45 pm

Mane are you sure you made both the requirements ? Double check

Double check

Yes, of course, it shows 100%, so I've completed both requirements.

Just cuz it shows 100% doesn't really mean you did all of it tbh speaking from experience you might be missing something

Something similar happened to me when i went for the green pumpkin award
I was missing a thread or some posts. maybe keep refreshing awardgoals and hope you get it eventually Really? I didn't know this problem could happen. I thought I had completed it, damn it.

Yep its annoying not sure why it ends up showing 100% when its not completed like that you probably dont have many threads/posts left. maybe within the next few posts or next thread

Deany - December 30, 2024, 8:53 pm

You prob got all threads done , but maybe need more posts

Yes, I'll try to make more posts; I should be good with the threads. Let's hope for the best. Yesterday, I spent more than 8 hours completing this reward.

I feel you been grinding all day today

I am at 80% now and need 10 more threads to go i think

Great, I hope you'll also manage to get the reward. As you can see, I've achieved it, thank you so much for helping me.

The same thing happened with the pumpkin award. There's no way for the awardgoals to track the posts and threads at the same time. Likely chances are is that you do not have the threads for it. I would triple check if I were you.
