$!uo2H%gE# - December 31, 2024, 12:00 am

I've done more than 100% and still don't have award. Something is not ok with that counting system.

Cool, so I'm not the only one who hasn't gotten it yet. Haha. Last day to get the bitch too. So happy that I at least got most of it done before taking a break from the site.. as I don't think I have the patience to do a fresh 250 posts and threads.

Good luck though, you should have it any minute. Have you completed all 25 threads?

Nice. Lucky you. I believe I have a lot of threads left.. I actually haven't counted how many I have done yet, but I don't feel like I've done many. I will check that now. I think I might be passed the 250 posts already.

Honestly the threads are usually easy for me its the posts that take a while when grinding awards like this i usually leave most of the threads until im finished most of the posts

I just checked, I'm at 98% and I have like around 5 threads I need to create. That's funny you say that, as I find it the complete opposite.. I could reply to posts all day, as they topic is already there.
When it comes to coming up with threads, it requires some thinking.

Nice looks like we are gonna get it at the same time

I mean usually once i start thinking of a thread to write, i start thinking of more ideas related to the one im writing and go from there

Man, I'm so ready to get it over and done with at this point. I've been on the forum for the past 3 hours.. lol. I haven't been completely active the whole time, but still.. that's much longer then I'm used to spending at one time. But I won't log off until I get to 100%

I just checked, and I'm at 100% ... it's finally over. How much percent do you have left? See if we can't help you get to 100% before I get off.

Ohh, ok. That's not too far away. You'll get that 3% done with little effort. If I don't talk to you again before the days over, have a great New Years.

Congrats.. I knew that last 2% wouldn't be any trouble for you. Weird how it has shown up on your profile before me, mine still hasn't shown up.. but I do remembers others talking about experiencing the same thing after getting to 100%

Edit - It's now showing.

To post a bunch and get it ,
Or not to post

That is the question

Cooligan - December 31, 2024, 6:52 am

Same here man, took me until today to be able to go for percentage completion.

Grats on getting the award!

Thanks man. It wasn't that bad of a grind in comparison to OctoberFest which was 600 posts and I think 25 threads? Not sure how much the thread total had to be for OctoberFest, but I do know the posts were 600.. so this 250 was light work. I see you've gotten your award too... congrats to you.
Have plans for trying to get any others?
