Thread: I'm open for work, so hire me?

Jeronim - December 31, 2024, 9:19 am

Since this post is being create on the New Year's Eve, I want to start it by wishing all of you and your families a very healthy and happy 2025!?

Since this 2025 I am out of most of my jobs due to plans on changing my location with family, I was looking forward to working something online. I have lost some of my "skills" due to continual changes in Internet, but I still am of good use for some of you workaholics around HF.

Some of the things I could do and get hired:

1. Write content & posting on blogs (I have medicine background, an MD.)
2. Create and design a website with WordPress
3. Teach and old method of getting Residential RDPs (real PCs of people worldwide)
4. Helping you with homework, assignments, seminars, essays (mostly medicine subjects overall).
5. Helping with your manuscripts on writing or doing basic analysis (I use R)
6. Others miscellaneous (present me).

As a form of payment, I use Cryptocurrencies (USDT, Bitcoin).

As a "self" vouch, I think I'm decent on whatever I offer, so we can come to great terms that we both like for any of the services above (and more!).

Hit me up in my PM or Convo and we can exchange contact information.

Best of health,
Jeronim

Wait, ordinary people lease access to their private PCs? Or do I not understand 'residential'?

Not so much available for hacking jobs tho'. Got some cracking chops but everything harmless and ethical as much as possible.

Hi mate - drop me a pm I may have something for you if you're interested.

Jeronim - January 12, 2025, 3:18 pm

Already did, my bro!
