Well I bet 100k in Sportsbook for the award. The rest I got obliterated in blackjack and flipping. I should have just sold as soon as I got it. At least I was able to sell some of it and get an award, so gg.

F4tDoinkz - January 5, 2025, 10:07 am

Lmao, I never play Black Jack, only slots, which also loves to take my bytes.

Bird Box - January 5, 2025, 10:07 am

I would do slots before I did blackjack. I always lose everything on blackjack.

Best I done was played bj and sportsbook, sold my bytes for btc, then woke up to seeing price hike of 100k btc, I sold my winnings for over $1000. I do not think I will ever top that again when it comes to gambling here.

I mean I made no investment whatsoever besides time playing and selling bytes.

Yeah man, I sold bytes multiple times for $50, $100, $150, $200... over the months/years. Mostly never bought any, I just won with what I had and invested time as well.

Still not worth it, I just put my bytes in crypto game rn.
