Thread: Peeing from a train in full public view - Thoughts?

The Joker - January 9, 2025, 8:07 am

Recently came across an incident where a woman peed from a train in NYC. Apparently she stood at the edge of the door with her bum sticking out and did her business with the public watching. (Pics attached)

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Why isn't there enough restrooms to ensure passengers doesn't have to go through situations like these?

Or is it some kind of a dare or exhibitionism or fetish?

Well I immediately thought it was going to be in india and some dude was going to hang dong outside the door while the train was moving.

The fact the train is stopped in a train station makes it look like some kind of mental episode. Especially being in NY.

I kind of can connect now why NYC was adding more NG soldiers to train stations, just wild.

They usually pee on co-travellers I've heard lol.

A google search for "Peeing in train India" throws some interesting articles. ?

Considering the train was in the station and stopped at the time, this feels more like shock value than anything else. Maybe a future aspiring OnlyFans stunt to get your porn career started?

Would've made sense if she had her OF mentioned somewhere like on her Tee or something. This I believe was a legit urge to pee without having to get off the train and missing it.

But it may also be a kink or fetish or something else that I'm probably too young to know.

I'm more inclined to think she just really needed to take a fat piss and there weren't bathrooms nearby and she couldn't hold it anymore?

Imagine if a guy did that, it wouldn't end well.

My thoughts too. She atleast didn't pee inside the tube like most others.

It's the subway right? Doesn't it stop like every 3 minutes in the US? If there are no public toilets on each station, then thats fucked tbh. But i'd rather do that, hooded up, then pee myself. Fuck that.

You could probably also hold it till the next station, I'm 100% sure there are toilets everywhere, maybe she would've missed the train if she went to pee or sum.

You have to be a guy and stand on top of the train and pee on all the people down below on the boarding platform. That's the way to do it!
