Thread: [\[Sold Out\] \[\$150\] 2 Custom Awards For Sale \[Money/Skull\] \[Sold Out\]](#)

Money- - January 10, 2025, 7:43 am

I am Looking to sell off my award grants.

Nah , not looking to swap. Unless I am interested but you know I Know. Money- wants Money!

<https://hackforums.net/myawards.php?awid=218>

<https://hackforums.net/myawards.php?awid=217>

They slightly looked pixelated ofcourse.

I wanted to have Novica to recreate and smooth them out but yea Omi has already updated them with my current design.

So I'll just roll with 24 x 24

But for 32 x 32 which Omi mentioned will be resizing soon will look much smoother and less pixelated.

32 x 32 :

Money- Price : $350 $250 $150

Skull Price : $350 $250 $150

Award Availability:

Money- : Sold Out.

Skull : Sold Out.

Edit : 25/01/2025 I have lowered the price to $250 which is realistically affordable. Not doing $150 sorry , too low for custom award wise.

Edit : 01/02/2025 They were offers on $150 , I just decided to go with it. Since I don't wana waste so much time. Figure I'll quick sell them for the funds.

was testing the waters on the previous prices anyways. Seems 50 50. Oh well.

That skull is sick.

Good luck with your sales :)

Hackers - January 10, 2025, 7:46 am great awards, I love them both, but the skull especially.

GLWS, definitely unique & premium

Secrets - January 10, 2025, 8:27 am

Selling both at same time or separate? and what payment methods, I imagine crypto is king.

Separate. If you want both. Yea can do for a price too.

Crypto. LTC?

The Joker - January 11, 2025, 8:02 am

Hmm. Would love to have the skull. Gonna wait and watch for now.

Good luck with sales!

No problem man , hit me up. I think I'll update the thread and reformat it with a fixed price soon.

Pimping - January 11, 2025, 11:40 pm

GLWS man both of them look super nice would buy if i had $$$ budget for awards hahaha

7 - January 11, 2025, 11:51 pm

Like I said I want 3 of each. They are great looking awards but 350$ each would be 2.1k for the row and would be the most expensive row I have lol

GLWS though

Maybe someone wants one then its not so bad.

But don't listen to Dorrance and scrub pricing that was a while ago.

I purchased 60 custom awards and I am charging 150$ each for mine.

But tbh that hard to achieve I end up donating for hard efforts on the site.

Would look so good though

Whats Novica? He a user?

Yea you can have 3 of each. I will be selling off the extra ones of course. If nobody wants all of them eventually I'll grant them back to myself.

I still have around 4 grant for the skull and 5 grants total for the money- , If you want all 6 then I'll be left with 2 grants of Money- and 1 grant of skull

I doubt I can sell it all eventually.

Yea Novica. He's the one who design HF awards. Pumpkin etc.

Gambler's award design I think was also from him.

Did you come up with a final price? I think the price/value of a lot of things have dropped on the forum.. as I will hear someone mention a price for something they're selling or looking to purchase.. i.e. a group, an award, a crew, bytes... and the person will mention one price, and a couple days later other users will come around and say that they're not worth that much anymore, and that prices have dropped... I'm guessing the price dropped with the reduction of members on the site? As there really aren't that many people on here willing to spend much money on here.. at least from what I've seen.

I think I'll settle with $350. Not more or less. Middle Amount.

7 wants 3 each of these 2 so 6 will be locked for him unless he changed his mind or something.

Currently I got 2 Money- and 1 Skull Award.

$350 each , same price tag for both 2 different award.

The crew probably had no meaning anymore after Hakuman got removed , yea I mean stuff doesn't seem the same anymore.

Migos was offering $350 for his bong recently like in 2024 so I'll take that as standard price.

I think before lavish was offering more or so like I don't know $400 and $500? Can't remember.

Syndicate - January 12, 2025, 8:23 pm

The money stack looks HELLA clean. GLWS my friend. I'd love to if I had the money bro

I would of bought one of those from him had he not did that goofy shit and got himself kicked off the site. Not cool seeing 10 years down the drain, over a couple hundred dollars.

Yes, I have to agree that the money stack looks the best.

Good evening Perfect sorry to bother you a friend of mine told me I could contact you because you are specialized in all areas

I wish you very good, positive thoughts, especially good luck to everyone and good service.

I can't see $350 being worth it for the award. I had the pulse controller priced at $250 and people said I'm out of my mind. I think that $150 is the correct price point for these custom awards. But as the owner of the item you reserve the right to price it at however much you want.

Who knows, someone may want it bad enough to cough up the very premium price ticket. Best of luck.

I'll adjust accordingly by the time. Just testing the waters. Would wana maximize the money obviously.

They are already people contacting me to buy at $100 lower price etc.

I might quick sell it probably , since HF ain't really used to be the place it was for awards nowadays or activity wise.

Mate if you can sell them for $250 then you're doing very well. The Red wings award is a 1.5x width and he has that priced at $350 I think. Even that's not selling. It's a bit of a shame really.

They are great looking awards though, I'd love to cop them but can't justify at that price. Just remember, you own the monopoly of those two awards. If someone really wants it, they will pay.

We'll see man. We'll see. I can take my time no problem. But I'll probably quick sell by then. Your target is $150? The most and most I'll go is $250 probably but we will see for sure.

Yea I'm gona maximize my rights for the profits.

They're $150 for Pulse members only. Anyone outside of pulse will have to pay $200. But no one is buying awards right now....well except for me lol. I bought some off of 7.

I don't wana do too expensive. $350 is affordable if you got money. But yea. To all reading this. What I mentioned above is just talks.

The main price is fixed at the thread , $350. Hopefully ya all read this than be " Oh I think he's gona lower it someday. "

Nah man. $350 or we can see later on. I am not gona do too expensive anyways. Will take forever to sell.

I think $350 or lesser is affordable. But $150 I think is just too low though. I won't do that. $150 is just very low in terms of custom awards.

Money- - January 24, 2025, 6:55 pm

I have lowered the price to $250. Should be realistically affordable than $350 honestly. I would cop $250 on custom awards if it were me.

$150 is too low. Sorry for that.

These awards are awesome

250-350 each is completely fair

Especially given they are literally money awards

Lowering it to $150 now. Guess that's the avg price for custom awards.

Lookin4Work - February 18, 2025, 1:17 pm

$150 and still not selling? I wouldn't drop any lower.

Summer the activity picks up, maybe some sells will come. I hope the best. I remember when awards were selling for $500 a pop or more..

To those saying $850+ yeah.. I'm not sure about that when groups to buy back then was around $5k.

It's also not helpful that repeatedly each year the activity has been lower and more crap is posted than anything now a days..

I have managed to sold 6 of them. If you want I could make a deal with you.

I only left 3 of it though.

2 Money stack and 1 skull.
