Thread: [\[75%+ off any CVS items\] Discounted CVS ExtraCare accounts!! Fast delivery! Reliable!](#)

Annuir cœptis - January 11, 2025, 8:20 pm

I'm selling CVS ExtraCare promotion accounts.

These accounts will have a guaranteed promotion of the select $ amount off, depending on the range you choose.

You can use these promotions almost like its a gift card, but they cannot be stacked or added to other accounts.

I personally use these accounts for drinks, bathroom products, household products, etc. These come in handy for every day purchases in your life.

These can also be good with purchasing collectibles and reselling them. Things such as Legos, Yugioh cards, Pokemon cards, etc.

Upon purchase I will send you two links. One link will be the 'Offer Page' showcasing total amount off on your designated barcode. Next will be an apple wallet link generated from CVS. This apple wallet link is strictly for convenience while in store. Alternatively, I can provide you a screenshot of the barcode which works just as good. You will scan the barcode prior to checking out. The barcode will give you a 'balance off' amount that can be used for the entire transaction total. You can use these for online purchases but they do charge shipping fees. Contact me for more information regarding online orders.

You can mix and match. Minimum checkout price $10.00

Current stock I have:

$5-$9.99 OFF: $2.00 each.

$10-$14.99 OFF: $3.25 each.

$15-$19.99 OFF: $4.25 each.

$25-29.99 OFF: $6.50 each.

$30-39.99 OFF: $8.50 each.

I can obtain higher $ amounts as requested. If you need a certain amount let me know and I'll get it arranged.

I accept all major crypto.

Are you selling the discount codes, or extracare accounts with the discount on them? I'm interested, but a bit confused as to which you're selling. If you're selling the discount codes, we can only use 1 code per extracare account that we own? Or we can only use 1 per order?

I'm selling the Cvs ExtraCare accounts that have attached promotions on them. You can use these almost like a cvs giftcard. Please be mindful of the restrictions listed in the thread.

I was thinking of ordering some of them for a family member, but I'm not sure whether she will have an issue with using "someone else's" extracare account. I will have a word with her this weekend, and see if she is OK with it, and if she is I will grab a couple of them from you.

The real purpose of these are to use'em and burn'em. One time use type deal.
