Hi all.

I need help from the HF community to Dox a scammer
He goes by the name Real Dev on discord user name (0deleted_user00)

I have come across a FB page I think is his called Swisher Sweet this person is active in the FiveM community he tries to sell a server base for $200 dollars that is broken and doesn't work.

I've tried to find out as much as I can about this person but I'm at a dead end I know he hangs out in the CFX discord under the username topdev23

If someone could kindly gather as much information about this person as they could I would appreciate it, even better if you can find out any real demographics like where he's based etc.

Your way in is to pose as a FiveM server owner either looking to buy his product or needing help.

Thank you.

Send what you have in pm.

But when I get into it and find out he is just a shitty dev and not a scammer, I'm leaving it alone.

Replied to you in dm. He's scamming by selling a leaked outdated base that isn't his.

Send me a pm as-well, got nothing else to do and the threads are looking dry
