Yes, but keep in mind its just for new accounts or accs never had Game pass. I can provide just the Code or new full access Microsoft account with the Code redeemed.

I don't think it's directly the PC Game Pass (PCGP), no. ($16.49 per month)

The PCGP is specifically called the "PC Game Pass (PCGP)", not just "Game Pass", that's just for the console version.

If this is Game Pass Ultimate though, then yes PCGP is included in that as a bundle by Xbox. Not sure why locaina listed the "Regular Price" as $19.99, as there is no Game Pass subscription for $19.99. He most likely meant to put $29.99, which is what Ultimate costs per month normally.

Your best bet is to use their comparison tool to see what perks are included in each tier directly compared to solo PCGP. It includes more details on every feature you unlock:
