EDIT:

- it came out afterwards that this is most likely a deranged homeless guy's version of fun
----> not too shabby form of fun, he got the whole internet

34°03'17.8"N 118°13'32.2"W

It says "traffico" , "federal" , "lapd" and a ton of "HELP" messages what do you think is going on?

here is one other concerning part, but it is a working area so this could be totally normal.
There appears to be a large opening with clear ventilation being used for workers, or whoever is down there.

where did u find this lmao

Rsynced - January 26, 2025, 7:46 pm

It's a secret meth lab I bet.

Spooky - January 26, 2025, 8:17 pm

Likely to be illegals or non-natives being trafficked. Hopefully Trump cleans this stuff up.

Foxxxy Proxies Ltd - January 26, 2025, 10:00 pm

Nodes, is this your cry for help? Do you need an intervention? Has ET raped you again? LOLOL

TrackPro+ - January 26, 2025, 10:45 pm

Welp it may be too late to help. Let's hope for the best! Pretty cool that you found this. I'm sure the Federales will rewind the satellite to see who and when. :)

Jamika - January 26, 2025, 11:59 pm

Someone said a man did this who had mental illness and so on

Flan. - January 27, 2025, 8:17 am

That does seem concerning. It might be best to contact the authorities or local law enforcement to investigate further. Stay safe!

Ah, it's out there now! Hopefully someone investigates.

From what I saw, it popped up sometime between 2022 and 2023 on satellite photos.

Someone pointed out that there was a search conducted on a nearby property that showed a bunch of kids toys, blankets, etc. This might've been written off as a homeless encampment though - I couldn't find the outcome of that story, but sounded like they weren't certain it was trafficking.

Another comment pointed out how many warehouse/storage/similar lands in this area are owned by 1 company.

Definitely worth looking into given the circumstances.

Of course it could just be a weird schizo who owns this property, or someone doing it for the exact attention we're giving them now.

That's what the person who kidnapped them wants you to think.

Pr0m3th3us - January 27, 2025, 6:46 pm

Its LA so nothing out of the ordinary?

I heard about a conspiracy theory that the Hawaii fires were started so the elite could take children as sex slaves. They took them on a board during the first acting like they're there to save people but they took the kids to Hollywood and kept them there. Then they created the fires in LA to kidnap more children but also to move the kids out of LA into other locations.

It's dark but they said there's many people on Epstein's list. Those people are still out there. They think this because in both events their mayors were out of town and it seem like arson.

HmmYeahNo - January 28, 2025, 12:49 pm

Jesus well I hope they're okay??? What the hell.

Flan. - January 28, 2025, 6:34 pm

It sounds like there could be some suspicious activity happening in that area. It might be a good idea to report it to the authorities just to be safe. Stay vigilant!

Deany - January 28, 2025, 7:16 pm

Um what in the flying frick?

lol that's what I thought!

My friend linked a screen in chat of a 4chan post, then it looks like I and obviously others shared that post,
it made its way to reddit,
made its way to some local news.

But its been sitting on satellite since around 2022.
Super strange.

Klonopin - February 4, 2025, 9:58 am

Didn't it come out that it was just some homeless man who did it? I saw this all over X.

Yes it did!

I saw that and meant to update the thread but forgot about that.

It appears to be some sort of nutty homeless guy who trespassed and did all this, a little bit at a time which is why the satellite photos show more and more HELP words appearing over 2 years.
