Thread: Distinguished US Air Force / NATO rep says Trump has been misled about UAP/UFOs

Hackers - January 30, 2025, 10:20 am

Brigadier General Blaine Holt: "I absolutely do not refute that there are extra-terrestrials and that more will be coming out".

On the White House drone announcement he said:

"We need to dive into who's MISINFORMING the President this early in his administration, need to root that out, we need to find out what's going on across this nation....because it's the tip of the iceberg and it's part of something much bigger."

Not sure who that is, but this topic is covered by a number of professionals and high ranking gov officials.

Your attempts to treat me as anything other than knowledgeable are laughable with that last fact in mind.

I'm not sure what you guys have against me, but you sound really dumb trying to pin this entire topic on me as if I made it up when countless people can corroborate it.

The other thing that makes me laugh:

- either it's unknown

- or a known source has successfully deployed craft in multiple countries, effectively starting a silent WW3

----> Which one is it?

-----> I think the crazy people are the ones saying these are known aircraft, because they completely ignore the fact that they are deployed worldwide in fleets.

-----> I don't even claim to know what they are or who they are. I just know it's important to discuss this, given how widespread they are, and how advanced their flight tech is.

Knowledgeable? Lay off the LSD.

And "you guys" I don't know who you are referring to, I speak for myself.

Lastly, why the fuck are you so paranoid ?

Sitting in convo and seeing the notification that a new nodes thread dropped is almost always a guarantee for some comedy/entertainment.

1. Yes, I am knowledgeable on a lot of topics. I'm sure you disagree with me on some politics, but I'd struggle to find anything I've ever said on HF that is "incorrect". You are free to try.

2. You guys as-in people who don't read information and just respond to things ignorantly.

3. Paranoid about what?

4. I could care less what you or other losers on this forum think about topics that are being discussed by the CIA, FBI, and rest of US gov. If that's comedy to you then you may be retarded.

I will continue to share important news. You're free to not read it. In fact, I'll make it very simple for you. I will just ignore you. You've wasted 37 seconds of my time now.

I couldn't care less what others say about you, and I don't speak for them-- only myself.

You seem unhinged, have been for a while.

My initial comment was simply " You remind me of Cuthbert but for this extra-terrestrial shit "

Essentially saying, you love to hear/see yourself speak. I don't give a flat fuck who you reference as a source, changes nothing, pretense is the same.

" I will just ignore you. You've wasted 37 seconds of my time now."

Go ahead lol, sadly your dumbass threads popup given HF convo has a new thread notification.

This is harassment imo

You have done this on convo, on the private "semi official" HF discord y'all made, and also in my threads

That's a reach.

Stick with the ignore list.

Merely pointing out the fact that you like to hear/see yourself speak and you take it as harassment.

Hackers add Proof to your ignore list instead of reporting their posts. He's just pointing out something most of us see. If you're gonna create new UFO threads on a near daily basis people are gonna start calling you nutty. And yeah, it's like Cuthbert, stuck on the same topic and off the wall crazy.

I did do that , but for last couple of months people on ignore list can still enter threads & reply I think?

I assumed it was an intentional change, but in the past I could've sworn things were more locked down for the ignore list.

Proof was able to reply here even though he's on ignore, and I can view threads of people who have me on ignore too.

I understand what you're saying.

Maybe I can combine some into more of a megathread so it's not as excessive, but there are definitely a lot of headlines related to this topic.
