When I first joined HF, Eran was the first person I contacted, and I bought a Facebook account from him. After the transaction, we started talking on Discord, and he quickly became someone I deeply respect. I truly appreciate you, Eran, you're an amazing person! Whenever I need advice, you're always there to help, no matter the issue. Your support means a lot to me, and I hope our friendship continues to grow.

This is my second post for the thread, maybe I can get lucky and win something.

The Pact - February 12, 2025, 3:23 am

Thank you for the contest. I have been thinking a lot lately of a man I once knew who was in love with me, and I did not really realise I was also madly in love with him, and loved him back and we each had a big crush on each other, but I did not even really realise how I felt because I thought it was too much of a May/December romance, and I was overwhelmed that he was my boss. I did not even know my own feelings. And so it was a bittersweet romance that never really happened. But later I found out he had been in love with me when it was too late and I only realised my own feelings when it was too late.

.Pazuzu - February 12, 2025, 8:18 am

Posting to enter, good luck to you all!

It's funny how love works, it can find you even if you're not actively looking for it- when my ex of over 5 years left me and I was in a bad place, living alone in the house we shared and just feeling at a loss- I became a slut (no better word for it) and just slept with everyone and anyone, ended up talking to a girl who I thought was out of my league and did not let on at all that she was interested, didn't want anything physical after the first or second date so I thought she was done with me, turns out she was just incredibly shy and while I was used to British women who tell you what they want- she was much more mysterious. Fast forward nearly 3 years and I couldn't be happier, we've travelled Europe and the UK together and she treats me like a king, there's always hope lads

The Pact - February 13, 2025, 8:29 pm

You know I really love earning money online. You don't necessarily have to be socially skilled. You don't have to have everyone in a real life job working with you like you.

You don't have to have some wanker boss, looking over your shoulder every ten minutes, saying, "Why did ya do it like that? Why are you doing it in a strange way? Why didn't you do that at exactly the right minute? Why did you do it later?"

I love making money online. I love that if my ADHD makes me drift off and turn up late to teach a class, everyone lets me get away with just tacking an extra ten minutes on the end of the hour's lesson, instead of going ballistic at me, and firing me. I love making money online!

s2ttech - February 13, 2025, 10:17 pm
