Thread: Seeking Technical Advice on Live Streaming Football Games Without Broadcast Rights

hello world - February 2, 2025, 11:43 am

Hello,

I am in possession of a 1xpromo account and am looking to promote it through live streaming. My goal is to stream football games live; however, I do not hold any broadcast rights for these games. I would appreciate any technical advice or suggestions on how to stream these games effectively without broadcast rights.

I would recommend looking into streaming platforms that have partnerships with sports organizations to avoid any legal issues. Good luck with your streaming!

Appreciate the advice, but I'm not looking for the safe route—I'm looking for the smart one. Any creative workarounds you know of?

I wouldn't risk streaming without rights, bro! way too risky. Maybe try live commentary or match updates with visuals instead. Works for many people.
