This was is literally controlled by the rich and I am having the most fun of my life.

My website was recently hacked by Mark's team and all I see is asian and ukriane ip addresses. Fake gmails and russian/french emails. Fake location ip addresses. Is mark russian or american? I thought he was 100% pure blood american, I guess I am wrong in ways.

Can you explain that in layman's terms?

It sounds like you're dealing with some serious hacking activity. Have you taken any steps to secure your website and information? It's important to stay vigilant and protect your online assets.

Might take a while based on how he typed making absolutely no sense. I guess crack, heroine, fentanyl, and meth all hitting at the same time isn't such a great combination. LOL
