A asylum seeker from afghanistan drove into a union protest today in Munich, Germany.

He injured 28 people, including critically and also 1 child had to be resuscitated.

The death toll is expected to rise. The 24 year old suspect was known to the police, as always.

Small statistic: 44.4% of all crimes are committed by suspects without german citizenship.

One more time ?

Anyway, more votes for the AfD ?

Hopefully it rises to 30%. Can't wait to see the faces of the far left.

AfD ain't it though, their policies are garbage and way too extreme.

In terms of Europe? Yesm their policies are garbage.

In terms of migration? They are only enforcing current laws. Germany already has laws on deporting rejected refugees, but they keep being tolerated.
