Quote:A BILL

To authorize the President to enter into negotiations to acquire Greenland and to rename Greenland as "Red, White, and Blueland".

Anyone else feel like the name is just dumb? lol

If this thread upsets you, get a life. I don't control what the US gov does or doesn't do.

We're witnessing an elementary level understanding of the constitution.

And they're still practicing their colors apparently.

"President Musk" was a fan of an agency called DOGE with the mascot of a puppy.

I don't think we can expect much out of these peeps - pups?

Absolutely horrible name. Idk why change it in the first place. I don't mind acquiring it but nobody will ever call it that. What a laughing stock.
