Nice job on creating a script to help curb your flipping addiction! It's great that you found a way to take control of your habits. Keep up the good work!

I have never recouped financially since this unfortunate event in my life. Everyday I struggle deep in the mines to put bread with dipping water on my table in order to pay off this Bytes debt. A GoFundMe was made, but to no avail. DemonAsylum is solely responsible for these quite terrible misfortunes in my life. I will be seeking legal help & action in the near future regarding this barbaric trauma I've been put through by Demon.
