Thread: Transgender Illegal Arrested for Raping Teen in NYC Bathroom

Rsynced - February 15, 2025, 9:33 pm

Quote:A migrant transgender woman wanted by federal immigration officials allegedly stalked and raped a boy in Manhattan this week, The Post has learned.

Nicol Suarez allegedly followed the 14-year-old into the bathroom of a bodega across the street from Thomas Jefferson Park in East Harlem Tuesday and attacked him, police and sources said.

The boy then left the bathroom and flagged down witnesses, who alerted police, the sources said.

Quote:Suarez, 30, who is originally from Colombia, was arrested nearby the following day and charged with first-degree rape.

Suarez was wanted in New Jersey and Massachusetts at the time, and U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement had a detainer on her, a law enforcement source said.

The nature of the out-of-state charges wasn't immediately available.

Jesus Christ you scared me my guy

Pr0m3th3us - February 16, 2025, 12:56 am

So it's a girl or a guy naturally?

I found an updated article and it's a male. Unfortunately its bond was lowered from 500k to 100k.

These are questions best left unanswered.

Damn that's crazy!

Good thing trans is only like 1% of our population and has little to no impact on society overall. Bad news is we somehow turned it into one of the biggest political discussions while we go down a path of ill-advised changes (tariffs, etc) for things that actually matter.

In other words:

damn, that's so shitty, but this is a one-off and has 0% correlation with them being trans. Statistically speaking of course. I know some people "feel" differently.

- weird headline. Feels like people will try to use it to defend whatever draconian law they want to enforce against certain communities.

Come on Hackers it's easy. Migrant + trans = bad mmmmk!

:p

Jokes aside, it is a shitty situation and I hope justice gets served on this one.

Articles like this are easy bait in my opinion though. People will froth because trans + migrant (today's spacegoat it seems). In reality, most child abuse is committed by close friends and family of the victim. Random attacks like these are an outlier.

I've gotten a serious chuckle (and worry) out of the trends on HF.

> 10+ posts at a time for violations of the constitution, felonies, and very real & consequential court cases being brought against the administration

> MAGA finds 1-2 cases of a trans, or an illegal, or another one-off occurrence to post about

1 of these themes is more important than the other. I know you know Epic, just talking to -- probably myself at this point actually lol

"yeah it was political and basically tariffs are more important because my mental state is determined by donald trump"

It's wild that was your take-away from this.

You are sick.

Yea that was whack. Not to mention that kid is prob mentally fucked for life....sucks.

Seems pretty legit, there are images of it in court.

We don't know what he did to that little boy. It is disgusting that he preyed on a minor. Who knows the true story? What did the little boy say happened?
