Thread: Forgotten Languages

I just came across one of the most weird websites. The text is in an unknown language and seems to be updated constantly. Did some research and people seem to think it is the work of a vampire cult? IDK

Figured I would just share for anyone bored enough to look into it.

Forgotten Languages Website link:

Nobody can read the website, it's Turkish characters trying to Lorem Ipsum but it's just gibberish

Yeah it's clearly some bored person's 'creepypasta' or attempt at an internet hoax, interesting but not the best we've seen ?
