Thread: 500 Stake affiliate earnings turned into 2k this month

Walter White - February 21, 2025, 12:51 pm

Hoping to soon reach 750 per month from affiliate alone. It's taken a decent amount of work to get things to this point. Made a little move and quadrupled it this month. Will prob not do that again anytime soon. Extremely volatile and sweaty but bag secured. 500ish of this screenshot was put back in so it ended up being 2k total.

Shits really lucrative if you get into affiliate. I dont even make anything off your affiliate earnings if you get involved this is just a little sauce if you wanna check it out. Craigslist and Facebook are really good for conversions. You wanna take it slow and learn the limitations. Facebook specifically states they're cool with social casino advertising you just have to make sure the algorithm knows thats what you're adverting. On Stake they dont make you wait around to get your affiliate earnings its instant. If somebody is playing you can take your share immediately & redeem it immediately.

You can also get a free 25 just by signing up with my affiliate code + you get a daily dollar & enabled rakeback (usually need to be "VIP"). I like to play my daily dollar on dice 300x .02 bet, and then if it hits i bump it up. Have turned that into 500+ multiple times. Its a social casino so the currency on the site has no monetary value but you can redeem the SC 1:1 for crypto. Meaning 1SC if redeemed is equal to $1 BTC,LTC,ETC,ect

Use code WALTERHF (I know there's a different one in my sig, I'm just keeping things organized so I know where sign ups are coming from)

It's important to use the code even if you use the link.

Lmk if you have any questions about getting referrals I'd be happy to help. You can really do yourself a favor by getting involved. I should have started a year before I did. Shit would be POPPIN lmao. They hook you up with templates too like the one in my signature.

whats your main source of traffic?

ailo - February 21, 2025, 4:53 pm

thats really nice, i did make like i think $200 in total from one guy a irl friend i referred, but its hard to find and look for traffic places to advertise this, im happy for you though, sucks i got limited need to verify level 2 to continue using my stake account.

thats a big secret ?

but facebook was good starting out. bit pricey. cragislist is really good if you put the work in but it is a decent bit if manual labor. but for money that will come in for a lifetime essentially, it's a pretty good deal.

i see some guys have success with youtube. i'm working on something for that right now. the idea is to broaden your horizon.

Did you sign up? Even if it doesnt work out for ya you still get paid a dollar a day ?

Here's my recent purchases and redemptions. Just a little update.

On the left are redemptions, transactions sent to my external wallet. On the right are purchases of GC + Stake Cash included.

I have pulled 1275 worth of LTC off the site in the past few days with 50 still remaining on my account. The purchases are for when I don't feel like waiting for referrals to play the amount I need to do my strategy. I do play a bit to pad my earnings as long as things are not bad.

Was a good week for referrals alone. It's Never Too Late To Get Involved And Start Earning Too.

Congratulations on this achievement man. Good work.

This is awesome, I use Stake myself and have been so interested in the affiliate program for a long time.

But it stops there because I literally have NO clue how I would monetize it or where to share the referral link.

Guess you need a little bit of audience to promote it haha!

Congrats though buddy, and keep it up <3
