Quote:6. LQP Bump - Do not bump your sales threads with LQP (low quality posting). Instead use the Post Bump for Bytes feature (see below).

How do I bump my sales thread if I can't figure out a valid reply?

For a Bytes fee you'll be able to bump any HF thread you wish, including your marketplace threads. Use the arrow-up icon on the first post of your own thread. You cannot bump threads you didn't create. Depending on the usergroup, price for bumping your thread is different. Current pricing is:
Regular Member and L33t : 400 ?
Ub3r: 200 ?
Vendor: 100

Either wait for an organic bump (someone posting on your thread, like I am now) or use bytes to bump it yourself with one of the HF bots.
bump :)

Edit: typo

Wait not way

Yeah some users will sell bytes. There are a few different ways to get bytes...

Can buy them
Earn from playing HF games
Some users also do quick love for quick love (quick love gives 10 bytes to the user)
Or some people will give them away as a thank you or for participation.

Yessir, no problem. you will also earn them for posts. So explore the forum, look around and feel free to contribute or ask questions. There's lots to do and lots to learn.
