After what feels like forever, I have finally got the Medal of Honor award. Was worried it was gonna get made defunct like the testimonial one, but happy to see it was awarded. To all those still in the fight, stay strong.

Oh wow, great achievement, brother! Congrats on receiving the Medal of Honor. What's next for you? Do you have a goal for your next award?

Thanks man! Taken forever, but finally found the way to get it done faster. I have the Businessman award, and the 10 Year and Bazillion Posts one, but I don't know if I'll go for those tbh

I remember trying that game for about 7 seconds and then giving up on ever getting that award.

Good for you haha.
